

Training and Testing for Accreditation

Our FULL Training Service

When you buy a course from International House Porto Business Services, all of this is included in the price:

- Qualified, experienced teachers
- Regular training for teachers (to constantly update their pedagogical skills and knowledge)
- Regular classroom observations (to aid teacher development and deal with group/course issues)
- Guaranteed, clear, transparent quality standards (as mandated by International House World Organisation)
- Needs Analysis process
- Initial level testing (written and oral) - On-line testing
- Recommendations regarding groups, courses and study materials
- Personalised study programmes
- Regular progress testing
- Regular progress reporting
- External exam registration processing
- Business Services Intranet system to facilitate access to and communication of student progress information
- Client Feedback process
- Competent, efficient coordination of training programmes by the Business Services Manager (saving valuable time for the client)
- Free access to IH Campus